

Autumn term 2

English
Book: The Story of Tutankhamun by Patricia Cleveland-Peck
Writing outcomes: Explanation texts and formal letters
We will learn to use present perfect tense, fronted adverbials and a range of conjunctions.

History - Ancient Egypt

- Who were the Ancient Egyptians?
- When and where did they live?
- What was daily life like?
- What gods did they worship?
- How did the Egyptians mummify bodies?
- Why was Tutankhamun significant?

Science - Animals including Humans

- What is nutrition?
- How can we read food labels?
- What are the different types of skeletons?
- How can we classify skeletons?
- How do our muscles support movement?

Computing

- Stop frame animation

PSHE

- How can we keep ourselves safe?

RE
What is my duty and how do I know?
Hindu world view.

What are Foxes learning this half term?

Maths

- Addition
- Subtraction
- Estimating
- Measure length and perimeter
- Multiplication

Music

- Violin - Thursday morning

Spanish

- Greetings and counting

Art and DT
Making Egyptian Death Masks

- We will create a design for our masks, annotating and labelling different features
- We will use balloons and paper mâché to create our masks
- We will decorate using metallic paints
- We will evaluate how successful we were